

The Power of Nature to Nurture

J.R. Watkins believes in the power of nature to nurture and in age-old answers to modern-day problems. Since 1868, they have been creating high-quality remedies, crafted with natural ingredients. For self-care that not only soothes but solves. Through their apothecary remedies J.R. Watkins is committed to helping you find calm, peaceful moments of reprieve from daily stress through their products and regimens. Transform your guest's room into a wellness sanctuary with the JR Watkins amenity collection.

ALOE & GREEN TEA

The soothing scent of aloe is fused with sparkling green tea and highlighted with crisp fresh cucumber, a heart of water lily and delicate jasmine. The clean fresh fragrance finishes with a light enduring white violet musk.
